

At the Cradle of Aviation, April 2-3 2011, the Edgewood Flyers, and others displayed to museum visitors the fun, and constructive pastime of model aviation.

The Edgewood Flyers also handed out DEC materials for there efforts over the many years at the Oak Brush Plains Preserve in conjunction with the Edgewood Flyers. Many were interested in the Summer Camps the DEC had to offer. We had a huge turnout. Checkout the Newsday Article at:

<http://www.newsday.com/long-island/towns/long-island-now-1.1732330/li-model-plane-enthusiasts-let-it-fly-1.2798595>

